Brass Desk-Verb Chronometer & Physical Esoteric Folio Compendium

[THE MECHANICS:]

A weighted cast-brass tabletop timer and magnetic verb-slot tray paired with a linen-bound cipher folio whose letterpress plates decode seasonal micro-expansions across Weather Factory narrative titles. Rotating milled knurled rings physically tracks aspect thresholds -- Lantern, Moth, Edge, Forge -- clicking through mechanical detent springs that mirror the rhythmic countdown pulse of desktop verb slots while concealing UV-reactive marginalia only legible under the included warm-amber pocket lens.

[UTILITARIAN VALUE:]

Gives dedicated narrative collectors a museum-grade physical hardware object and companion scenario cipher, yielding steep direct-to-collector margins with zero publisher middlemen.

[TARGET ECOSYSTEM:]

Narrative RPG patrons, esoteric tabletop designers, mechanical desk-toy collectors, and indie literary fans.
