Magnetic Chronicle Slate & Evolving Campaign Box Architecture

---

[THE MECHANICS:]

A layered birch-and-steel campaign box lid embedded with recessed magnetic faction dials and dry-erase brass rule plates that lock the exact state of treaties, ruined tiles, and exile decks between game nights. Rather than bagging hundreds of loose tokens after each session, players snap the magnetic board-state plate shut and resume the chronicle in under 30 seconds.

[UTILITARIAN VALUE:]

Turns multi-session asymmetric campaign state into an instant physical tabletop board with zero tear-down friction, creating a high-margin deluxe collector tier for replayable legacy campaigns.

[TARGET ECOSYSTEM:]

Tabletop strategy enthusiasts, asymmetric game designers, board game cafes, and deluxe edition collectors.
